

THE DAILY STAR

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 1

In order to accommodate Eastern Advertisers in the Star, Mr. E. Dunoon Sniffen, No. 72 Astor House, New York City, has been appointed our general and special Agent for the Eastern States. This will be a branch office of the Star, Mr. Sniffen being authorized to make advertising contracts on our behalf, and receipt all collections therefor in our name.

For the next twenty-four hours, probably cloudy, with snow or rain, and rising temperature. Probably clearing by to-morrow morning.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

ASH WEDNESDAY.
PICKPOCKETS did a good business yesterday.

MICHAEL CLINE, a farmer, had his pocket picked of $150 at the Plum-street Depot on getting off a car.

RALPH LOWE EMMERSON, the boy accidentally shot last Saturday by his brother, died last evening at half-past 6 o'clock, aged thirteen years.

M. ROCHSTER, of No. 63 West Third street, had his pocket picked on the Walnut Hills street cars, last evening about 7 o'clock, of a gold watch.

FRANK B. KROOK, of Portsmouth, Ohio, had a gold watch with ring attached and a seven shooter stolen from the steamer Potomac yesterday morning.

MIAMI Medical College Commencement exercises take place this evening at Pike's Opera-house. Addresses will be delivered by Professor W. B. Davis and Bishop Foster.

A SMALL child, about six weeks old, was left in the rear yard of 201 W. Third street last night. The child was wrapped in a comforter. No clue to its parents has been found.

The railroad meeting announced to be held Saturday, March 4, at Mount Washington, will not take place till Saturday, March 11, as the committee appointed at the last meeting will not be able to make a report before that time.

DURING the Mardi Gras procession last night the residence of Mrs. Montagnier, No. 375 Grand street, was burglarized. One hundred and twenty dollars in currency and $350 worth of silverware and jewelry were taken. The money loss falls on Miss Louise Montagnier, a teacher in the Eighth District School. The house was completely ransacked.

The students of the Senior Class of Woodward High School have organized a dramatic club. They will give their first entertainment before the pupils of the school in the hall of their building on Thursday afternoon. The pieces selected for performance are: "I'll Be a Part of the Fun" and "Pickwick Papers." The following young ladies and gentlemen will participate: Misses Gibson, Northman, Bohlander, McGowan, Abbot and Kendall, Messrs. Laws, Miller, Martin, Haeon, Guard and Judge.

The doors of the Exposition Hall were thrown open about 7 o'clock, and the hall was soon filled by the makers. The hall was wonderfully decorated in Mardi Gras colors. Professor Currier and forty musicians furnished the music for the dance. When the grand march was played all but those in mask were required to leave the floor. The ball passed off in a very orderly manner, one man up to 12 o'clock only having been put out. The morning, satisfied that they had a big time.

Court Cullings.

Thomas A. Shea against M. Greenwood & Co. An action to recover $240 due under a contract. Verdict for defendant.

John Howe was found guilty of burglary and remanded for sentence.

In the case of Dickman against Greaser the jury found for plaintiff, and assessed his damages at $1,140.

Henry Landau against Joseph Schreiber. This was an action to recover a balance due on a building contract. Case in progress.

The jury in the Hamilton-Logan case returned a verdict of acquittal as to Lewis A. Logan, and a disagreement as to Hamilton.

Meteorological.

From the meteorological summary for the month of February, reported by Mr. S. S. Bassler, Observer in charge of the U. S. Weather Signal Station, in this city, we take the following: The highest temperature during the month was 66 degrees on the 10th and 11th. The lowest temperature was 8 degrees on the 2d. The entire range of temperature was 58 degrees. The average temperature was 40 degrees, the highest during a period of five years, or as far back as the records of the station extend. The total rainfall for the month was 3.92 inches. The heaviest wind was 50 miles an hour, on the 25th. The prevailing direction of wind was west. There were 8 clear days, 5 fair days, 3 cloudy days, and 13 days on which rain or snow fell.

Protest.

The citizens of Walnut Hills have prepared and extensively signed a protest against granting the right of way to the Miami Valley Narrow Gauge steam railroad. The petitioners protest against giving any more grants to steam railroads to cross main thoroughfares in the city, and against granting to this road the exclusive right of way under any circumstances. The opinion is expressed that the road should be required to follow the line of the old Deer Creek Road, between Effluent Pipe street and the Park entrance; that it should cross Effluent Pipe street at right angles and below grade and the Park entrance by a bridge. The route now proposed by the company commences at the corner of Broadway and Court street, and follows up Deer Creek, crossing Effluent Pipe street and the Park entrance at grade and the Montgomery Road by a bridge, and thence to the corner of Beresford and Woodburn avenues.

About two years ago my wife had a very troublesome cough, of so serious a character that we all became very anxious; indeed, it seemed that we had but little to hope for, as the lungs were affected. We tried various medicines, but very little if any benefit seemed to be derived from any of them; so that it appeared the disease had become a mastery, and nothing but death would bring relief. I was then advised to give Dr. D. Jayne's Expectorant a trial, and doing so, to our surprise found great benefit from its use. Persisting with it, she gradually commenced improving, and all the principal symptoms disappeared entirely, and she has enjoyed reasonably good health ever since. John Musgrave, Hubbardsville, Kentucky.

Fabulous.

During the deluge, as a heedless shark was conducting a thanksgiving service for an abundant harvest, a prudent patriarch looked out and addressed him thus: "My friend, I am much struck with your open countenance; pray come into the ark and make one of us. The probabilities are a falling barometer, general atmospheric disturbance and heavy rains throughout the region of the lower universe during the next forty days." "That is just the sort of harp I am," replied the shark, who had out several rows of wisdom teeth; "bring on your deluges." About six weeks subsequently the patriarch encountered him on the summit of Mount Ararat, in very straitened circumstances.

Moral: You can't pretty much most always tell how things are going to turn out sometimes.

A Hamilton boy came in to his mother the other day with two yawning rents in his trousers. His patient mother sat down, after administering the necessary counter-irritant, to repair the garment, and was about to hear her darling tell his sister that "Mother was an old devil." "Harry," she cried, "what did you say?" "I didn't say anything, mother." "Yes you did, Harry. You said I was a devil. What did you mean by that?" "Well, it's so, mother; 'cause my Sunday-school teacher told me that nobody but the devil sowed tares."

"Don't you think," said a husband in mild form of rebuke to his wife, "that women are possessed of the devil?" "Yes," was the answer, "as soon as they are married."

Molly Maguire,

Terror of the Coal Fields.

By DANIEL DOYLE,

A Mine Boss.

A thrilling story of the Anthracite Mining regions of Pennsylvania, entitled

Molly Maguire,

Terror of the Coal Fields.

will be commenced in No. 17 of the

NEW YORK WEEKLY,

Ready on Monday, Feb. 28th.

The story is from the pen of a PRACTICAL MINER, who assumes the name of "Daniel Doyle," to shield his life from the misguided who might misinterpret his motives.

He draws most of his scenes from real life, and gives some powerful portrayals of Poverty and Crime in Pennsylvania.

It strikes with an unsparring hand the vice that like a leprosy has spread itself over the rich region of the anthracite belt; points out the

Monopolists and Millionaires,

and the awful struggles that agitate the working classes in the "black battle of life" underground.

The Society that has made its name a terror in the land, is arraigned of awful atrocities. Its plottings, meetings, midnight murders, burning of coal-breakers, and are presented in a graphic and vivid manner, and the reader's self-bound from beginning to end.

The writer does not identify honorable Irish societies of any kind with this worse than Communist combination, which has been repeatedly and he draws his heroes from all classes and creeds that play a part in mining pursuits.

Denounced by the Catholic Church,

Origin of the Molly Maguires.

THE MOLLY MAGUIRE SOCIETY is one of the most modern of the several secret organizations that have sprung into existence in Ireland during the past century, and is decidedly the worst.

Its origin is owing to the cruel murder of an old woman named Maguire at the hands of an agent who, in company with his minions, seized on the poor woman's property for rent.

For years and their friends formed a society which they gave her name. It spread through portions of the North and West of Ireland, and confined its operations to landlords and their agents, whose property, and whose lives, sometimes, paid the penalty of any seeming cruelty on their part toward any of the members of the society of MOLLY MAGUIRE.

Its introduction to Pennsylvania is quite recent, but it has spread throughout the counties of Luzerne and Schuylkill with amazing rapidity, making wherever it has been. Its objects and aims sink to the level of the meanest animal instinct of wreaking revenge for wrongs, real or fancied, and many a mine has paid the penalty of doing his duty, with his life.

Don't fail to read the story of
